

The Richard Gazzola Teacher Center of Yonkers
Course Offerings Winter and Spring 2022

Registration now open on Frontline Professional Growth
Yonkers Catalog – Program: Richard Gazzola Teacher Center

Please refer to the actual listing on Frontline
for specific information pertaining to each individual course

Community of Practice - Online PLC

Instructor: Joan Carrozza

Begins on January 5, 2022

This two (2) in-service credit hour course will run synchronously and asynchronously as a Professional Learning Communities (PLC). Participants will use results-oriented action steps to identify what their students need, monitor each student's learning, provide interventions, and implement continual improvement. The class will have five, (5) live zoom sessions, one per month to develop an action plan for their own PLCs.

Social Re-Adjustment Tools and Strategies

Instructor: Joan Carrozza

Begins on January 5, 2022

This two (2) in-service credit hour course will look at ways to reintegrate our students back to school and in-person instruction so they can return to 21st century learning with a balanced use of technology. Participants will also investigate and evaluate various social emotional tools and mental health resources.

Blended Learning: Integrating Technology into the Classroom

Instructor: Dr. Dan Sabol

Begins on January 6, 2022

This one (1) in-service credit hour course will teach blended learning models, explore the strategies involved in selecting the right blended learning model for the classroom, and develop a blended learning lesson for immediate use in the classroom.

Yoga and Mindfulness for Self-Care

Instructor: Jessica Mondello

Begins on January 6, 2022

This one (1) in-service credit hour course will focus on using yoga and mindfulness practices to help manage stress, increase self-awareness and self-appreciation, regulate emotional reactions, and create healthy boundaries.

The Richard Gazzola Teacher Center of Yonkers
Course Offerings Winter and Spring 2022

Registration now open on Frontline Professional Growth
Yonkers Catalog – Program: Richard Gazzola Teacher Center

Please refer to the actual listing on Frontline
for specific information pertaining to each individual course

Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) II

Instructor: Julie Cupertino

Begins on January 10, 2022

This two (2) in-service credit hour course will delve deeper into the tenets and ideals of Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA). Participants will learn about how to use data and various tools to enhance and increase student engagement and productivity.

Cultivating Genius in Your Classroom

Instructor: Ashley Youhan

Begins on January 24, 2022

This two (2) in-service credit hour course is based on Cultivating Genius an Equity Framework for Culturally and Historically Responsive Literacy, by Gholdy Muhammad. Participants will learn about historically responsive literacy (HRL) and self-reflect in order to authentically teach with this newly presented framework while identifying the genius within themselves and their classes.

Creating Equitable Parent Involvement

Instructor: Joan Carrozza

Begins on February 7, 2022

This two (2) in-service credit hour course offer ways to best engage and support parents so they can share in their child's learning and classroom experiences, while developing safe school environments especially for English language learners, diverse learners and special education students.

Cultural Competence Now

Instructor: Anne Kent-Kwasniewski

Begins on February 28, 2022

This one (1) in-service credit hour book study provides a structure to begin meaningful conversations about race, culture, bias, privilege, and power through selected exercises and activities.